

PATH Publications: Topics, Audiences, Types of Materials, Contact Information

October 2002

Topics

- Adolescent Health
- Breast Cancer
- Cervical Cancer
- Contraceptive Methods and Supplies
- Emergency Contraception
- Female Genital Mutilation/Cutting
- Gender, Violence, and Rights
- HIV and AIDS
- IEC/Materials Development
- Infection Prevention/Safe Injection
- Maternal and Child Health and Nutrition
- Reproductive Health
- Sexually Transmitted Infections
- Technology Solutions
- Training/Curricula
- Vaccines and Immunizations

Target Audiences

- Program planners/clinic managers
- Policy makers
- Health care providers (pharmacists, midwives, physicians, community health workers)
- Researchers and scientists
- Advocacy/women's groups
- Peer educators
- Clients
- Donors

Types of Materials

- Newsletters
- Manuals
- Monographs
- Curricula
- Brochures
- Fact Sheets
- Background papers/technical reviews
- Websites

Contact Information

- For general information, please contact Michele Burns, PATH Publications Coordinator (1455 NW Leary Way, Seattle, WA 98107; 206-285-3500; mburns@path.org).
- For information about publications produced in PATH's Washington, D.C., office, please contact Willow Gerber (1800 K Street, N.W., Suite 800, Washington, D.C. 20006; 202-822-0033; wgerber@path-dc.org).
- To see a complete listing of all PATH materials, visit the PATH website (www.path.org/materials.php).